1 Rules Governing Legislation

2 1.1 Section 1

- Every bill which has passed the Senate, before it becomes effective, shall be presented to the President of the ASWWU; if s/he approves, s/he shall sign it, but if not, s/he shall return it to the Senate with his/her objections. The Senate shall enter the objections at large in its minutes and shall proceed to reconsider the bill. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of the Senate shall agree to pass the bill, it shall become effective. If any bill shall not be returned by the President within three days (Saturdays exempted) after it has been presented to him/her, the same bill shall be effective in like manner as if s/he had signed it, unless the Senate by their adjournment prevent
- be effective in like manner as if s/he had signed it, unless the Senate by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be effective.

11 1.2 Section 2

Every bill which has passed the Senate, before it becomes effective, shall be presented to the President of the ASWWU; if s/he approves, s/he shall sign it, but if not, s/he shall return it to the Senate with his/her objections. The Senate shall enter the objections at large in its minutes and shall proceed to reconsider the bill. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of the Senate shall agree to pass the bill, it shall become effective. If any bill shall not be returned by the President within three days (Saturdays exempted) after it has been presented to him/her, the same bill shall be effective in like manner as if s/he had signed it, unless the Senate by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be effective.

20 1.3 Section 3

Every bill which has passed the Senate, before it becomes effective, shall be presented to the President of the ASWWU; if s/he approves, s/he shall sign it, but if not, s/he shall return it to the Senate with his/her objections. The Senate shall enter the objections at large in its minutes and shall proceed to reconsider the bill. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of the Senate shall agree to pass the bill, it shall become effective. If any bill shall not be returned by the President within three days (Saturdays exempted) after it has been presented to him/her, the same bill shall be effective in like manner as if s/he had signed it, unless the Senate by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be effective.